

The ISU French & Francophone Studies program proudly presents the Fall 2023 French Film Series

Thursdays at 7:15pm in STV 101

SEPTEMBER 21: La gloire de mon père (My Father's Glory, Y. Robert, 1990) “[S]entimental” and “nostalgic. [...] Who would want it any other way?” The film “play[s] like a simple series of episodes. Then the episodes add up to a childhood. [...] Childhood ends, in a sense, the day we discover that summer does not last forever” (Roger Ebert).

OCTOBER 19: Couleur de peau : miel (Approved for Adoption, Jung and L. Boileau, 2012) “[T]he ultimate expression of what started as the mere scribblings of little boy trying to find his place in the world” (Film Comment Magazine). The “animation, with its lovely subdued palette, is alive with the pains, joys and rascal spirit of childhood” (Los Angeles Times).

NOVEMBER 16: Petite maman (C. Sciamma, 2021) “[E]qual parts about the fragility of childhood and the tension of familial ties” (Observer). “[W]hat every film should be: powerfully, even arrestingly original; grounded in emotional truth; hyper-specific; deeply universal; strange; mesmerizing; and not a minute longer than necessary” (Washington Post).

*Films are free and open to students enrolled in ISU French classes.
